Researching through volumes in several libraries and archives in the United States, author Kay Mouradian visited the village in Turkey where her mother and her mother s family, along with twenty-five thousand other Armenians, were forced to leave their homes. Traveling over the same deportation route to the deserts of Syria where more than a million Armenians perished, the author became acutely aware of the suffering of her mother s generation and the lingering sense of injustice they carried. Like the 6 million Jewish people lost in the Holocaust, Armenians lost an incredibly vibrant, successful, and valuable gene pool of more than a million as a result of the Armenian genocide. This story of fourteen-year-old Flora Munushian, the author s mother, brings an epic chapter in Armenian history to life and takes it to heart. Flora s incredible story honors her people with dignity and personifies the human spirit of hope, love, and justice. Flora s voice is that of all the victims and survivors of the Armenian Genocide, a story that must not be forgotten. I am my mother s voice, says Dr. Mouradian, and this is her story.
