Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .the benefit of the competitive system have been largely made nugatory by the courts or by the legislature, either as a matter of interpretation, or as a matter of withholding appropriations. The constitutional amendment just adopted, the Supreme Court of Colorado has lately decided, is self-executing, and it cannot fail, therefore, to accomplish its purpose. In Baltimore a charter which included provisions for a merit system was adopted by a popular majority of nearly 24,000 out of 50,000 votes, that is, practically three out of every four voters favored the system. In Akron, Ohio, the same result has been achieved, and in other cities merit system provisions have been adopted as a part of their charters. In Oregon an effort was made to enact a civil service law, which was unsuccessful. An extensive campaign was organized, in which the Field Secretary of the League had a large and influential part. The question will now be carried from the legislature to the people, and it is to be hoped that the decision of the legislators will be reversed. In Illinois there has been an effort made to extend the merit system in the City of Chicago, by including about 3,000 offices in the Cook County service, Municipal Courts and the Chicago Sanitary District. This legislation is still pending. In this connection it may be proper to refer to the fact that during the year a civil service law has been adopted for the entire Dominion of Canada...
