Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ACCOUNTABILITY Roseanne Eckroyd is an evil woman who runs a house of prostitution and believes she is accountable to nobody. When she gets pregnant, she gives birth because she's afraid to have the unwanted child-which she considers a cancer-cut from her body. She allows the girl to live because it amuses her to watch little Ruth struggle. Eventually, a customer offers to buy the child, now a young teen, for his son's birthday party, and Roseanne realizes her genius in keeping the brat. She refuses to contact her husband, for she believes that having her in his life is a recipe for disaster. And she will do anything to make his life better. Even stay away. That her first husband rescued her and gave her the protection of his name while treating her like...
