TAFF IN THE WAAF (PAPERBACK)

Frances Lincoln Publishers Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Mick Manning (illustrator). PB Reissue. 270 x 214 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book.  Winner of The English Association 4-11 Book Awards - Key Stage 2 Non-Fiction  Mick Manning s mother was a young woman in Wales at the outbreak of World War II. This fascinating book, a companion to the the very successful Tail-End Charlie about Mick s father s life in the RAF in World War II, tells her story using the same innovative non-fiction narrative style. At the outbreak of war and the start of food rationing, she left school aged 14 to work in a local greengrocer s shop. Later joining the WAAF (the Women s Auxiliary Air Force), she became a wireless operator and eventually a Y service listener for the secret signal decoding operation at Bletchley Park where the famous German Enigma Code was cracked. The book also looks at other essential women s roles during the war including the ATS (Auxiliary Territorial Service), the Wrens (Women s Royal Naval Service), Land Army, Fire Service etc, and a wide range of aspects of life affected by the war effort. Simply written and using speech bubbles and captioned illustration boxes of artefacts and documents from the period, this is a dramatic and engaging introduction to its subject.
