Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters From the Red Beech: Six Letters by a Layman to a Minister of the Free Church of Scotland on the Canon, the Pulpit, and Criticism My Dear Sir, - I believe that this is the first time on which I have broken silence on this question. Like not a few other laymen I have a filial desire for the welfare of the Free Church, and for the welfare of Scotland through it, but I have thought that both might be best promoted by zealously holding ones tongue on the Robertson Smith matter, and taking no side upon it. Like a good many such men, however, I have at last been driven out of mere silence. Some general and important aspects of the question are coming to the front, which seem to me to demand not so much special knowledge that I do not possess - as a frank interchange of conscientious views between laymen and ministers. And while I have the honour to know most of the leading ministers of the Free Church, I...
