Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Remarks In Committee of the Whole, on Wednesday evening, March 5, the Bill providing for an appropriation of five millions of dollars, and the raising, arming and equipin oof one hundred thousand men, to protect the frontiers of the State of New York against invasion, coming up for discussion, Mr. Raymond, of New York City, spoke substantially as follows: (and at all times, adequate and full preparation for every probable emergency of the future. I concede that the remarks already made upon this subject, the facts brought to the knowledge of the House, especially in the able speech of the gentleman from Ulster (Mr. Pierce), as well as in the further remarks of the gentlemen from St. Lawrence and Clinton, do establish this point, that our country is not adequately provided for defence. I think no one can claim, in the light of the information submitted to this committee, that we are fully prepared for the possible, or even for the probable, emergencies that the future has in store for us. I think, therefore,...
