AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 352 pages. Dimensions: 7.6in. x 5.4in. x 0.7in. How do friends deal with betrayal, incest, rape, sexual promiscuity, and broken hearts A town full of teenagers attempting to live an adult life quickly learn that through all the hurt and pain, and through all the joy and laughter, all that glitter isnt gold! A dangerous mystery lies with the new family in town, and Stacey Petersen, the heartbroken and immature idol, has fallen head over heels for the seductive son. Roger Jones carries a cloud of mystery and unforeseen danger wherever he goes. But, despite the danger, Stacey is determined to get her man. Shes even willing to risk friendship and her familys trust to be a part of his world. Even though Rogers lustful eyes cant seem to escape Staceys overt advances, hes determined to hold on to his familys secrets; including the question of his whereabouts when he disappears on business trips for days at a time. Do you think hes seeing someone else her beloved friend Donna asked. On her quest to get her man, Stacey will find that she will get more than she bargained for. Trapped in the tumultuous whirlwind that lies between childhood and adulthood, Stacey and her company of adolescent friends will find themselves facing many of lifes ugly truths and a wealth of unanswered questions, which teenagers havent yet acquired the life experiences to deal with. This Night Belongs to You combines humor with realism in telling the murderous tale of a young girls coming of age. It is a novel about the joy of friendship, about the influence of family on adolescence, about the psychology of sexual misbehavior, and last but never least. . . . it is a story about the calming beauty of...
