Gondomars letter printed by Mr. Gardiner in the Archicologia, Vol, xli. 4 The Judges of the Kings Bench to the King, 18 Oct. S. t. Dom. James I. VOL. V. P So far the inquiry had been conducted with zeal, diligence, and discretion by all parties. The King had entrusted it to Commissioners unexceptionable in character and position, and given theua full liberty of action. The Commissioners in dealing with it had followed the order prescribed by law, which required that the principal should be convicted before the accessory were tried, and regarded as principal not the man who contrives and procures, but the man who executes the deed. And though the evidence implicated the Somersets only as accessories, there can be no doubt that it fully...

Complete guideline for publication fans. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
