Pero: The Life of a Bristol Slave

By Christine Eickelmann

Redcliffe Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Pero: The Life of a Bristol Slave, Christine Eickelmann, Pero was an enslaved man, born in the West Indies, owned by the sugar planter and merchant John Pinney whose Bristol home is now the Georgian House Museum in Great George Street. Pero lived in that house for some years and, since a footbridge on the Harbourside was names after him in 1999, his name has become a familiar one in the city. The bridge commemorates, and pays tribute to, all those Africans and West Indians who were enslaved by Bristol's merchants and planters. Pero is a symbol of the millions of men, women and children taken from their homes in Africa to the Americas as a central commodity in the transatlantic slave trade. Their toil in the North American and Caribbean plantations made people like Pinney rich, and by the time Pero came to Bristol in the 1780s, the city had become wealth on the proceeds of the slave trade and plantation slavery. The authors have pieced together the story of Pero's life as a servant in Nevis and in Bristol, and at a time when the black population in England...

Reviews

This publication might be well worth a read, and much better than other. It really is simplified but excitement inside the 50 % of the book. You will not feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for concerning when you check with me).
