I take pleasure in seconding the resolution. Mr. Patrick, of Colorado: I desire to state that I am likewise familiar with the conditions as set forth by the two gentlemen who have preceded me, and I desire likewise to second the adoption of that resolution. The President: Are there any other remarks, gentlemen If not. all in favor of the adoption of this resolution for the appointment of a commission between the United States and Mexico signify the same by saying aye: contrary minded no. The ayes have it and the resolution is adopted: The next resolution is: Recommending the Department of the Interior that the rule prohibiting the grazing of sheep on forest reserves in the West be abrogated, introduced by Hon. John C. Mackay, of Utah. Forest Reserves--Negative Mr. J. C. Mackay: Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Convention--Forest reserves have been established in most of our Western states, without reference to the representatives of the states most directly interested, or the conditions of their admission as political communities. The national forest policy seems to be directed and impelled by the American Forestry Association, whose membership roll contains COO names, 371--a clean majority--are residents of New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the District of Columbia; fifty claiming residence in Washington City. The organization is so constituted that a few active members can shape the course of the association and become a powerful influence in framing the policy...
