Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Rochew-Albimon: An Epical Didactical Poem, Gives an Historical Account of the Ancestry and Descendants of the White Man The Rochew-Albimon, while giving an historical account of the ancestry and descendants of the White man, would educate, reform and better the Human race. It is altruistic and scientific, and, while it would reform, by natural laws, and have Progressors steadfastly adhere to its plan and effort for the purity of the individual, the citizen and the government, it would be liberal, as to fanciful notions on religion, and include among its working factors all pantheists, monotheists, polytheists, deists, agnostics, infidels and atheists. Its philosophy teaches that we should merit what we get, get what we merit, and redeem ourselves from the consequences of our own and our ancestors transgressions; so that, when we come to die, we may feel assured that, by our living, the Human race has been bettered and that we truly deserve promotion. It would not be proper to select from the six hundred religions, now on earth, any certain one for our faith and hope, while we are asking for the sisterhood and brotherhood of the world to fellowship and co-operate on Sundays and all days for the scientific betterment of the Human race. We are Evolutionists and believe that we not only come up from a lower condition of life, but that, in some ways, we have come down from a higher condition of life. The Naturalist has expressed modern views, as to the downward tendency of the Human race, in many ways and on various occasions. It was but yesterday, here in Philadelphia, that we heard Dr. G. H....
